

In Partnership with
Jack and Jill of America, Inc. and Detroit HBCU Network
Present

The Legacy and True Value of Historically Black Colleges & Universities

Saturday, December 14, 2013

10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Western Campus

9555 Haggerty Road, Belleville MI 48111

College Representatives and alumni from various Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's) will speak with Jack and Jill organizational teens and the community about the unique HBCU experience. Speakers will give interactive group information about the admission process, program majors, campus housing, financial aid and other relevant information, including a panel discussion!

Participants will:

- Learn about the rich legacy of our nation's great Historically Black Colleges and Universities and their valuable contribution to society
- Have an opportunity to find out about the benefits of attending HBCU's
- Gain insight into the critical admissions requirements and qualifications, tuition cost and out-of-state student support services

Open To the Public at No Cost!

EDUCATION IS PRICELESS!

For more information, please contact the Western Campus at (734) 699-7008 or visit our website at www.wcccd.edu

